Explanation:

The Agency is proposing certain changes in the current composition of the Supervisory Board. By combining knowledge and experience of the proposed candidates, we wish the Supervisory Board to become more efficient and deeply involved in the control over operations of the Bank, which should lead to increased confidence of customers in the Bank's performance. The proposed changes to the Supervisory Board will not only strengthen the control over the operations of the Bank, but will also ensure a proper strategic direction of the Bank, full exploitation of its potentials, the accomplishment of its business objectives, and strong support in its efforts to streamline its operations.

In accordance with the Corporate Governance Code for Companies with State Capital Investments and OECD Guidelines, the Agency is responsible for nominating such candidates to supervisory boards that can ensure high standards of supervision and are heterogeneously composed. In addition to legal requirements, the candidates must meet the following criteria: personal integrity and business ethics; proper education; work experience and appropriate professional knowledge; must pay regard to long-term objectives of the company; are flexible in time; are not personally, economically or in any other way closely connected to the company or its management; do not have potential conflicts of interest; have a good name (the 'fit & proper' standard).

Brief CV of candidates:

Mrs. Vida Lebar has over 32 year of experience in the area of finance, accounting and auditing of financial statements. She was, among other things, as a project leader in charge of reviewing international accounting standards at the audit company PricewaterhouseCoopers d.o.o., Ljubljana. She holds a certificate of certified auditor.

Mr. Ivan Simič has over 27 years of work experience and is a member of the Chamber of Slovene Tax Advisers, the Slovene Managers' Association and the Fiscal Council of the Republic of Slovenia. He is currently the manager of the company SIMIČ & PARTNERJI d.o.o. (tax advisory services). He was the general manager of the Tax Administration of the Republic of Slovenia.

Mr. Darjan Petrič worked at NLB d.d., Ljubljana, as an authorised representative and adviser to the member of the Management Board. He was, among other things, in charge of integrating operations of banks within the NLB Group (Serbia, Kosovo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro). He has experience of working on supervisory boards.

Mr. Robert Lavrič has over 27 years of work experience, mainly in investment banking and the management of investment funds and stock brokerage companies. He has, among other things, held various management positions in the companies ILIRKA d.d. (asset management company), Ljubljana, ILIRKA d.d. (stock brokerage company), Ljubljana, INTARA d.d. (stock brokerage company), Ljubljana, and Creditanstalt-nova banka d.d., Ljubljana.

Mr. Danijel Petrovič is the president of the Management Board of Ilirija d.d., Ljubljana. In the past, he has held various management positions in the companies Siemens d.o.o., Ljubljana, Marmis d.o.o., Ljubljana, and Telekom Slovenije d.d., Ljubljana.

Mr. Miha Šipec holds a Msc. in Law Sciences and is currently heading the law firm Odvetnik Miha Šipec, which is specialised in civil and corporate issues, mainly corporate law, bankruptcy proceedings and issues relating to intellectual property rights. He has worked as a judge at, among others, the Higher Court in Ljubljana – department for corporate justice (judgements on corporate matters).

Mr. Janez Balkovec has gained local and international knowledge working in the area of management and organisation, marketing and sales, finance and accounting, staff and motivation, and project management. He has experience of working on supervisory boards. He is currently acting as an adviser to the manager of the company Informatika d.d., and has previously held various management positions in the companies Zavarovalnica Tilia d.d., Novo mesto, Sava plus d.d., Ljubljana, and Pozavarovalnica Sava d.d., Ljubljana.

Mr. Jure Fišer has been, among other things, the executive director for sales and marketing in Gorenje d.d., Velenje, covering mainly United Kingdom (Manager of Gorenje UK Ltd, London). He is currently the manager of the company Gorenje Surovina d.o.o. in Maribor, a subsidiary of Gorenje d.d., engaged in environmental management.

Mr. Timotej Jagrič is a senior lecturer at the Faculty of Economics and Business in Maribor (lecturer at graduate, postgraduate and doctoral level) and head of the Finance and Banking Institute. In the past, he has been, among other things, an active member of the Strategic Council of the Government of the Republic of Slovenia for Economic Development, a member of the Supervisory Board of Pozavarovalnica Sava d.d., Ljubljana, and an adviser to the Institute of Macroeconomic Analysis and Development.

All proposed candidates meet the requirements for holding the office of the Bank's Supervisory Board in accordance with Articles 255 and 273 of the Companies Act and Articles 71 and 72 of the Banking Act. None of the proposed members is closely related to a legal entity in which Nova KBM has voting rights or equity stake in excess of 5% and has not the status of a subordinated company in the Group within the meaning of Point 14 of Article 2 of the Financial Conglomerates Act.

We call upon the Management Board of the company to convene as soon as possible the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with its Articles of Association.

Yours faithfully.
